MISS HENNESSY IS BRIDE OF GEORGE H. THOMAS

Popular Young Couple United in Marriage Last Evening and Leave for Southern California on Honeymoon.

Miss Alma Marie Hennessy, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Hennessy, and Mr. George Subbell Thomas, two well known and very popular young people, were married last evening at the Hennessy home, 515 West State avenue. The marriage marks the culmination of several years of companionship and courtship. Archdeacon W. E. Warren, of St. John's Episcopal church, performed the ceremony, which took place at 8 o'clock. The bride wore a nobby traveling suit of navy blue, faille, with hat to match, and wore a corsage bouquet of lillies of the valley. She was given away to Mr. Thomas by her mother. The wedding was a simple home affair, witnessed only by intimate friends of the young people. Pink and white predominated in the decorations in the drawing room, where the wedding took place, and in the dining room, where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served following the ceremony. The newly married couple left at midnight for a honeymoon trip to southern California, intending to stop on the return trip at the Grand Canyon and at the Hubbell ranch at Glendale, Ariz.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas have a host of friends in Albuquerque and throughout the state who will offer congratulations and wishes for a very happy married life. The bride was for several years secretary and treasurer of the Crescent Hardware Co., and conceded to be one of the best business women in Albuquerque, having a wide knowledge of the hardware business. Mr. Thomas is a well known traveling salesman for Gross, Kelly & Company. On the return from the honeymoon the newlyweds will reside at 515 West State avenue.

Upon visiting the office of the trust company, Mary is surprised and gratified to receive a visit from Mrs. Reed, wife of the president of the Occidental Trust company and an old friend of her mother. She invites Mary to make her a visit at her country place in Maronech and Mary willingly accepts.

ferring from the insistent demands of indignant money lenders, he looks upon the recently arrived young heiress as a direct answer to his prayers and immediately set to work to win her.

Captain Bradford falls in love with Mary at his first sight of her, but as he has nothing to recommend him beyond good character, he has at first little chance against the duke's glittering personality and Machiavellian methods.

The duke succeeds in becoming a hero in Mary's eyes by rescuing her from a fire in the stables, which has been started by a scoundrel bribed by the unscrupulous nobleman.

A little later, however, Mary is given a true insight into the character of her admirer. While she is sailing on the lake with the duke, the motorboat is set on fire by the engine. The duke seizes the only available life preserver and jumps overboard, leaving Mary to her fate. Bradford, who has been following the course of the motorboat with longing eyes, swims to Mary's rescue and saves her life.

Afterwards, when Mary attempts to find and thank her gallant rescuer, she finds that he has been ordered to headquarters. And so she cannot thank him.

MORE MISFORTUNE FOR MARY FULLER

"Who Will Marry Mary," to Succeed "What Happened to Mary" in the Film Dramas Produced by Edison.

Followers of the "movies" will be interested to know that "Mary" is going to have a lot more troubles. For months "Mary," who is Mary Fuller has been constantly in trouble in the scenes in the series of pictures known as "What Happened to Mary."

The Edison company now stars Mary Fuller in a new series to be called, "Who Will Marry Mary?" and the first story is entitled "A Proposal From the Duke."

Oh, he's a bad duke sure enough, and sadly in need of money. Robert Brower, who looks more like a bank president than any bank president we ever saw, has finger in things, however, and looks after Mary. In the play Mary Custer, at her grandfather's death, was left in possession of fortunes of $122,000 a year, representing his interest in the Silver Star mine in California.

At the country house Mary meets a brilliant gathering of debutantes and young men. Among the latter are two New York society men, a Scotch nobleman, an Italian duke and Captain Justin Bradford of the army engineers.

SODA DISPENSER AT BUTT STORE AN ARTIST

E. B. Edwards Has Had All Kinds of Big City Experience and Can Mix Soda Drinks to the Queen's Taste — Try a "Mary Garden."

Any druggist or confectioner will vouch for the statement that really good soda dispensers are mighty rare. There are, of course, plenty of men who, with a little instruction, can learn to mix soda fountain drinks after a fashion, but the high class soda dispenser, the man who makes a real art of his business, is hard to find.

Under such circumstances, the people of Albuquerque have at their service at the Butt's, Inc., drug store at Second and Central a soda dispenser who is said to have no superior anywhere. He is E. B. Edwards, and he has had experience as an export soda dispenser in a number of the most successful confectionery establishments in the United States. He learned his business in the south, where the soda mixing business has reached its highest standard, and before coming to Albuquerque he had been employed as chief dispenser for The Elite, the leading confectionery store in El Paso.

There is no known soda drink or special ice that Mr. Edwards doesn't know how to serve to the queen's taste. If you want something new in the cool and refreshing line, just try some of the delicious novelties listed on the Butt menu—a "peach special," or a "Mary Garden," or a "U. N. M. Special," or a "Cupid's Delight."

RAILROADS AMAZED AT ATTITUDE TAKEN BY EMPLOYEES' ORDERS

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.) New York, July 17.—The general committee of 100 of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the Order of Railway Conductors went into session here today to consider last night's communication from the eastern railroad managers announcing that the roads would insist on presenting their own grievances before the arbitration board which is to settle the wage dispute. The conference adjourned shortly before 11 o'clock but Morris, Lee and Garretson said they would make no reply to the roads until tonight. On behalf of the roads the following statement was issued: "We are amazed at the attitude taken by the leaders of the Trainmen and Conductors as regards our desire to arbitrate our grievances. We shall insist that our differences be arbitrated as well as theirs and we stand pat on our letter of last night."

WILL INVESTIGATE SALMON FISHERIES

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.) Winnipeg, July 17.—An investigation of the salmon fishing in Fraser river, British Columbia, will be made by J. D. Hazen of Ottawa, Canadian minister of marine and fisheries, according to his statement today as he left for Vancouver. B. C. Hazen is on his way to the Pacific coast to welcome the dreadnought New Zealand to Canada July 20.

United States fishermen are cleaning out the international waters with their huge traps," said Mr. Hazen. "Fear is expressed in some quarters that unless something is done by the United States authorities cannot be in the Fraser river district will suffer greatly, even if they are forced to close entirely."

"This matter was the subject of a treaty some years ago between the United States and Canada," he continued. "At that time it was agreed that the reports submitted by Prof. Prince, representing Canada, and Dr. David Starr Jordan, acting for the United States, would become the basis for an international agreement regarding fishing in waters contiguous to the two countries. Canada has lived up to the agreement explicitly but the United States has failed to do so up to the present, although the matter was made the subject of a strong message to President Taft sometime before the Wilson administration took up the reins of government."

ALBANY LEGISLATORS TO HAVE LOBBY PROBE

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.) Albany, N. Y., July 17.—Council of the Frawley legislative investigating committee announced today that he would take up the matter of widely published efforts to improperly influence legislators.

He then called as a witness Assembyman Thad C. Sweet of Oswego, who testified to having asked Governor Sulzer to approve a bill appropriating $50,000 for a bridge.

"Assemblyman, how did you vote on my direct primary bill?" witness said the governor asked him.

Mr. Sweet replied that he had voted against it.

"How are you going to vote on it at the extra session?" the governor continued: "remember, I take good care of my friends."

Mr. Sweet also continued to oppose the primary measure and his bridge bill was vetoed.

M. L. Cowell, 418 West Silver avenue, and A. F. Maiette, 218 North Sixth street, left this afternoon for New York City and other eastern points. They will be gone one month.
